

XPERITY

Partner Success Story

“ As a relatively small company with direct lines of communication, we value quality and personal relationships - qualities we also look for in our partners. I've worked with mscrm-addons.com for over 10 years, and they've consistently exceeded expectations. Whether it's product support or help with sales demos, they're our go-to partner for document generation. ”

About Xperity

Xperity is a Dutch IT consultancy specializing in Microsoft CRM Business Applications, including Dynamics 365 and the Power Platform. With offices in Utrecht and 's-Hertogenbosch, we help organizations improve efficiency, strengthen customer relationships, and drive digital transformation. Our approach is rooted in collaboration, industry expertise, and a deep understanding of each client's unique needs. From strategic advice to tailored implementations and ongoing support, we provide end-to-end services that help our clients make the most of their Microsoft technology investments.

Why did you choose mscrm-addons.com as a partner?

We chose mscrm-addons.com as a partner because of their consistently high-quality products and outstanding support. Their solutions are reliable, user-friendly, and seamlessly integrate with Microsoft Dynamics 365, which perfectly aligns with the needs of our clients. Just as important, their support team is highly responsive and knowledgeable. Whether it's for technical assistance or pre-sales enablement, we know we can count on them. It's a true partnership built on trust, performance, and shared commitment to customer success.

How has partnering with mscrm-addons.com impacted your organization?

Partnering with mscrm-addons.com has allowed us to expand our portfolio with powerful, value-adding solutions that truly make a difference for our customers. Their products, like DocumentsCorePack and AttachmentExtractor, help our clients streamline document processes, save storage costs, and increase efficiency within Microsoft Dynamics 365. This not only strengthens the results we deliver but also reinforces our position as a trusted advisor. It's been a great way to offer proven solutions that help our customers work smarter and perform better.

What are the main benefits for your customers regarding our solutions?

One of the main benefits our customers experience with mscrm-addons.com solutions, especially DocumentsCorePack, is the ability to generate, process, and manage documents directly within Dynamics 365 in a fast, reliable, and user-friendly way. DocumentsCorePack is our go-to solution for document processes in the Microsoft ecosystem because it offers powerful features, flexible template design, seamless integration with Power Automate, and excellent scalability.
